Our members want to know about products and services that can enhance their waterfront lives. FOCA is the only province-wide organization speaking directly to this affluent and elusive group.

About this Market:

Cottagers own more than $75-billion in real estate and spend an estimated $8-billion each year on non-real estate purchases.

FOCA has member associations in hundreds of Ontario's rural Municipalities. Cottagers own 15,000 km of shoreline and 50,000 hectares of rural land.

Our members are boat enthusiasts, homeowners and families who need a variety of products and services.
